Official Telegram

1. Enclosed copy of collect telegram to the undersigned from Mr. David Clift, Assistant Librarian of Yale University, is an official message. It includes the names of two gentlemen recommended for consideration for positions in C.I.G..

2. This information was requested of Mr. Clift and he was authorized to wire same collect.

3. The necessity for urgency was due to the fact that the Executive Director and a ranking officer of the Office of Reports and Estimates were going to New York and desired the addresses contained in the telegram in order that they might interview  in New York and obviate the necessity of paying for their transportation to Washington.
